Democrats, Media Attack RFK, Jr. Following HHS Nomination

Following Donald Trump's announcement nominating Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. as Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS) Democratic Party members and mainstream-media sources have attacked Kennedy's stances on key issues.

Senator Elizabeth Warren (D-Mass.), who believes Kennedy is a "danger" to the status quo, alleged he is a public threat, going as far as making the ridiculous claim he would "welcome the return of polio," stating in a post on X:

Representative Robert Garcia (D-Calif.) called Kennedy a "dangerous conspiracy theorist" who "undermines doctors and science":

The leftist backlash to Kennedy's position on water fluoridation and public awareness on the toxicity of fluoride gaining momentum has caused Democrats to release statements in favor of maintaining fluoridation of community water. New York State Senator Jessica Ramos (D-Queens), who is running for Mayor of New York posted on X:

Representative Majorie Taylor Greene (R-Ga.) spoke with reporters on Kennedy's nomination. When CNN's Manu Raju asked about Democratic Party members claiming that Kennedy is "dangerous," Greene responded, stating:

Oh dangerous? Well let's talk about all the people that have suffered all kinds of side effects from the COVID vaccines that were mandated by Democrats, all the deaths reported, you know all the people that were ignored on the VAERS system, that's actually what's dangerous. And let's talk about childhood autism rates that have skyrocketed unbelievably over the past several decades.

That's dangerous, and all the other conditions that unfortunately it's like a war on our children mandated by the CDC and pushed on us by big pharma, I think Bobby Kennedy is going to do an incredible job, it's going to be a complete revolution for food, farming, and medicine, and I cant wait to see it happen.
