More Than 100 Dead After IDF Fires on Gazans at Humanitarian Convoy

Israeli Defense Forces (IDF) in Northern Gaza fired on a crowd of hundreds of starving Palestinians desperate for food being distributed by a humanitarian aid convoy of about 30 trucks around 4:00 a.m. today.

An IDF spokesperson stated the crowd was looting the trucks, and stated IDF soldiers felt threatened and fired warning shots as Palestinians came within tens of meters, then stated that they intentionally fired at the legs of the Palestinians in order to maim the civilians.

Itamar Ben-Gvir, Israeli Minister of National Security praised the soldiers, stating on X, "Total support must be given to our heroic fighters operating in Gaza, who acted excellently against a Gazan mob that tried to harm them. Today it was proven that the transfer of humanitarian aid to Gaza is not only madness while our abductees are being held in the Strip under substandard conditions, but also endangers the IDF soldiers. This is another clear reason why we must stop transferring this aid, which is in fact aid to harm the IDF soldiers and oxygen to Hamas."
