

Written by D. Michael DeRidder on October 15, 2024

Netanyahu: Israel Listens to U.S. Input, but Will Make Final Decisions on Iran Strike

Following remarks earlier this month in which U.S. President Joe Biden said he would not support an Israeli strike on Iranian nuclear sites, The Washington Post reported that Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu informed Biden during a conversation last week that he is willing to consider only striking Iranian military targets. Netanyahu's office responded to The Washington Post, stating on X, "We listen to the opinions of the United States, but we will make our final decisions based on our national interests."

AP Images
Benjamin Netanyahu

Israeli Defense Minister Yoav Gallant spoke about the impending Israeli strike against Iran, stating it will be "deadly, precise and surprising," posting on X:

Together with the intelligence soldiers in unit 9900 who watch what is happening all over the Middle East through visual intelligence. In my conversation with the soldiers I emphasized — our attack in Iran will be deadly, precise and surprising. Those who try to harm the State of Israel will pay a price.

Subscribe to the New American

Get exclusive digital access to the most informative, non-partisan truthful news source for patriotic Americans!

Discover a refreshing blend of time-honored values, principles and insightful perspectives within the pages of "The New American" magazine. Delve into a world where tradition is the foundation, and exploration knows no bounds.

From politics and finance to foreign affairs, environment, culture, and technology, we bring you an unparalleled array of topics that matter most.

Subscribe

What's Included?

- 24 Issues Per Year
- Optional Print Edition
- Digital Edition Access
- Exclusive Subscriber Content
- Audio provided for all articles
- Unlimited access to past issues
- Coming Soon! Ad FREE
- 60-Day money back guarantee!
- Cancel anytime.