The BBC reports that the first phase of the proposal by Hamas included the release of all elderly, sick, women, and males under 19 in exchange for the release of Palestinian women and children being held in Israeli jails. Also included in the first phase was Israeli military withdrawal from populated areas in Gaza, and reconstruction of hospitals and refugee camps in Gaza. Netanyahu called these proposals "bizarre" in the press conference.

Israel has called for the release of the remaining hostages being held by Hamas, but has refused proposals to end the war in exchange for their release. Since the start of the war on October 7, 2023, Gaza's health ministry reports that more than 27,000 Palestinians have been killed by Israel, over two-thirds of whom were women and children.
