Netanyahu Scolds UN in General Assembly Speech

During a speech at the UN earlier today, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu criticized the UN General Assembly for its attacks against Israel, calling the organization a “swamp of anti-semitic bile” intent on demonizing the State of Israel.

Netanyahu rebuked members of the UN for condemning Israel 174 times in the past decade, while condemning nations violating human rights a combined total of only 73 times:

In the last decade there have been more resolutions passed against Israel in this hall at the UN general assembly than against the entire world combined, actually more than twice as many. Since 2014 this body condemned Israel 174 times. It condemned all the other countries in the world 73 times. That’s more than 100 extra condemnations for the Jewish state. What hypocrisy, what a double standard, what a joke!

During his speech, Netanyahu issued a grave warning to Iranian leaders in Tehran, stating:

I have a message for the tyrants of Tehran, if you strike us we will strike you. There is no place in Iran that the long arm of Israel cannot reach, and that’s true of the entire middle east.

I congratulate Prime Minister Benjamin @netanyahu on his important speech at the UN General Assembly, with the families of the hostages present in the hall.

PM Netanyahu presented the simple truth: the Iranian regime and its terror proxies pose a danger to all nations of the...

Netanyahu continued, stating Israel is winning it's seven-front war against Tehran — in Gaza, the West Bank, Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Yemen, and Iran:

Far from being lambs led to the slaughter, Israel's soldiers have fought back with incredible courage and with heroic sacrifice, and I have another message for this assembly and for the world outside this hall, we are winning!

Earlier today, the Israel Defense Forces (IDF) carried out an airstrike on Hezbollah's central headquarters in Beirut, Lebanon. IDF spokesman Rear Admiral Daniel Hagari said the command center was destroyed, stating in a video posted on X:

Moments ago, the Israel Defense Forces carried out a precise strike on the central headquarters of the Hezbollah terror organization that served as a epicenter Hezbollah's terror. Hezbollah's central headquarters was intentionally built under residential buildings in the heart of the Dahieh in Beirut as part of Hezbollah's strategy of using Lebanese people as human shields.
