Nikki Haley Releases Primary Delegates, Will Not Attend RNC

Nikki Haley has released the 97 delegates she received during the Republican Party presidential primaries before the Republican National Convention (RNC). Politico reports Haley's spokesperson Chaney Denton stated Haley was not invited to the RNC in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, next week, and that "she's fine with that. Trump deserves the convention he wants. She's made it clear she's voting for him and wishes him the best."

Haley said the RNC is a time for Republicans to unify behind former President Donald Trump, stating, "The nominating convention is a time for Republican unity.... Joe Biden is not competent to serve a second term and Kamala Harris would be a disaster for America. We need a president who will hold our enemies to account, secure our border, cut our debt, and get our economy back on track. I encourage my delegates to support Donald Trump next week in Milwaukee."
