Orbán Says West Preparing to Send Military Into Ukraine

Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orbán warned NATO is preparing to enter Ukraine, stating, “We are one step away from the West sending the military to Ukraine.”

Orbán claimed the majority of NATO members are pro-war, stating, “Today in Brussels there is a pro-war majority. The mood in Europe is bellicose. The logic of war dominates politics. I see preparations for war on the part of everyone and everywhere. NATO’s secretary-general has said he wants to set up a NATO mission in Ukraine. The European leaders are already involved in war.”

Yesterday NATO Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg said he spoke with G7 lawyers regarding support for Ukraine and “tackling” the support Russia is receiving from China, stating on X:

Good meeting with #G7 foreign ministers & @DmytroKuleba on support for #Ukraine. More defences & more ammunition are on the way. Also discussed tackling support for #Russia’s war effort from China, DPRK & Iran. #NATO stands with Ukraine.

Orbán said funding the war in Ukraine has worsened the situation, and is escalating NATO’s level of involvement in Ukraine, stating:

But then it came to the sending of weapons: first, firearms, then tanks, airplanes, financial aid of more than tens of billions of euros, and now somewhere around 100 billion euros. But this money and these weapons do not make the situation better. In fact, it is getting worse. We are one step away from the West sending the military to Ukraine,

He warned that getting involved in the war could destroy Europe, stating, “This military whirlpool can drag Europe to the bottom. Brussels is playing with fire and angering God.”
