

Teamsters President: Democrats “Have F*cked Us Over for the Last 40 Years”

Teamsters President Sean O’Brien spoke about Teamsters Union members’ dissatisfaction with the Democratic Party during an interview with comedian Theo Von on his podcast This Past Weekend. Von asked O’Brien about the groups pushing back against the Teamsters Union, and O’Brien stated in his response:

It’s a combination of corporate America, and I refer to them all the time as f*ckin white collar criminals, right that all they do is care about the bottom line and the balance sheet.... And then you have, you know there’s politicians, both sides, Democrats and Republicans, and I’ll be honest with you, I’m a Democrat but they have f*cked us over for the last 40 years, and for once, and not all of them, but for once we’re standing up as a union, probably the only one right now saying, “what the f*ck have you done for us?” And I’m getting attacked from the Left, you know, we’ve given since I’ve been in office two and a half years, we’ve given the Democratic machine $15.7 million. We’ve given Republicans about $340,000, truth be told. So it’s like, you know, people say the Democratic party is the party of the working people. They’re bought and paid for by Big Tech, those big tech companies.
