

Written by Dennis Behreandt on March 24, 2010

America's New Form of Government: Federal Socialism

We can now say with utmost certainty that Barack Obama absorbed every word of his America-hating preacher in the church he and his wife attended for twenty years. He lied his way into the White House with the help of socialist Democrats who admire Fidel Castro and Hugo Chavez more than they do George Washington.

And so, Barack Hussein Obama will go down in history as having achieved what no one believed an elected American president would ever want to achieve, the destruction of our Constitutional Republic. He joins that freedom-hating pantheon of philosophers and despots like Karl Marx, Vladimir Lenin, Josef Stalin, Adolf Hitler, Mao Tse Tung, Fidel Castro, Pol Pot and other such political leaders who led millions of people into slavery, starvation, and death.

And now that the Congressional wolves in sheep's clothing, like Harry Reid and Nancy Pelosi, have shown us their true totalitarian colors, the American people can see how their blatant, shameless, corrupt machinations have brought us to our present unhappy state. And they've told us with great glee that the passage of Obamacare is only the beginning of their efforts to transform America.

And what will the American people do in response to this socialist takeover of their government? The Tea-Party Movement is just the beginning. Now that the socialists among us have shown what their true aims are, there is no need for the freedom opposition to treat these traitors with any obsequious politeness. Let's not mince words. The idea that the only way to get people health insurance is by destroying all of our traditions of individual freedom is an idea made in hell. There are a whole lot of other legitimate ways to get people health insurance without a socialist dictatorship.

The Left has used the healthcare problem as only one of their means of destroying our way of life. Climate change is another. Energy is another. The takeover of important industries is another. The plan to impose socialist totalitarianism over America has been long in the making. It did not start with the election of Barack Obama, but Obama seems to have been the perfect battering ram to do the job of destroying the Constitutional foundations of our government.

There is no doubt that he is highly intelligent, clever, engaging, comfortable with himself and thoroughly evil. His decision to postpone his travels in order to oversee the passage of his national healthcare bill indicates the depth of his commitment to socialist totalitarianism. In fact, the passage of that 2,700-page bill is a giant step in that direction. And I don't think that there is any doubt any longer that Mr. Obama is quite capable of becoming as ruthless a dictator as any of his socialist predecessors.

The elections in November will tell us what the American people are made of. We have not yet reached the stage where violence is called for. We have been so well educated to believe that democratic elections can solve our problems, that until now we have found peaceful compromise to be the best form of political activism. Non-violent, peaceful opposition may still be able to carry the day.

Written by Dennis Behreandt on March 24, 2010

But socialists think otherwise. They believe in violent revolution, and the 20th century has shown how they will not hesitate to murder millions of people in order to carry out their plans for a coercive utopia. But Americans are loath to believe that any one who calls himself an American would consider or condone such brutal massacres as a way of achieving political ends. But if you believe in man's innate depravity, you will have no illusions about what some men are capable of doing.

Who would have believed that the civilized German people, with their universities, and museums, and opera houses, could in just a few years descend to such barbarism under a National Socialist — Nazi — government as to invent human extermination camps during World War II? So the impossible is not at all impossible.

Let us not deceive ourselves any longer. If we want future generations of Americans to live in freedom, this present generation will have to do whatever it takes to bring this about. In the American Revolution, thousands died in order to achieve history's greatest and most benevolent form of government. It was not achieved through an election. And we have sent thousands of young Americans abroad to fight communism, fascism, and socialism. Thousands sacrificed their lives so that we could continue to live in freedom. And so the burning question is: What are we, their beneficiaries, willing to do to preserve freedom? At the very least, we should be willing and eager to throw the totalitarians out of office the next chance we get.

Dr. Samuel L. Blumenfeld is the author of nine books on education including NEA: Trojan Horse in American Education, The Whole Language/OBE Fraud, and The Victims of Dick & Jane and Other Essays. Of NEA: Trojan Horse in American Education, former U.S. Senator Steve Symms of Idaho said: "Every so often a book is written that can change the thinking of a nation. This book is one of them." Mr. Blumenfeld's columns have appeared in such diverse publications as Reason, The New American, The Chalcedon Report, Insight, Education Digest, Vital Speeches, WorldNetDaily, and others.

Subscribe to the New American

Get exclusive digital access to the most informative, non-partisan truthful news source for patriotic Americans!

Discover a refreshing blend of time-honored values, principles and insightful perspectives within the pages of "The New American" magazine. Delve into a world where tradition is the foundation, and exploration knows no bounds.

From politics and finance to foreign affairs, environment, culture, and technology, we bring you an unparalleled array of topics that matter most.

Subscribe

What's Included?

- 24 Issues Per Year
- Optional Print Edition
- Digital Edition Access
- Exclusive Subscriber Content
- Audio provided for all articles
- Unlimited access to past issues
- Coming Soon! Ad FREE
- 60-Day money back guarantee!
- Cancel anytime.