Long Live Freedom — and Sanity!

This week, Argentina's wild-haired and foul-mouthed president went to Davos and delivered a 20-minute speech that tore into socialism and cultural Marxism. Javier Milei contradicted what every Marxist Ivy League professor has "taught" his gullible college students for decades. More importantly, he likely offended the fascist-communist sensibilities of many in his audience.

Milei's speech inspired, reinvigorated, and provided hope to sensible people all over the world. He first laid out the empirical data that is capitalism's wildly successful track record. No matter how clever an argument the leftist makes, the data are indisputable: Free-market capitalism has made people all over the world freer and richer than ever before, while collectivism has made people poorer and slaves of the state. Milei pointed out that free-market capitalism has taken 95 percent of people out of poverty.

"In all of human history," he said, "there has never been a moment of greater prosperity than that which we are living in today. The world of today is freer, richer, more peaceful, and more prosperous than in any other moment in our history. This is true for all, but in particular for those countries that are free, where they respect economic freedom and individual property rights."

Milei also attacked pantheism (climate cultism), feminism, and abortion. He categorized them as infectious growths of cultural Marxism. "The only thing that the agenda of radical feminism has brought about is greater state intervention to hinder economic processes and give work to bureaucrats who haven't contributed anything to society, whether it be the format of the Ministry of Women or international organizations dedicated to promoting this agenda.... Another of the conflicts that the socialists have brought about is that of man against nature. They maintain that we human beings harm the planet, and that it must be protected at all cost, including reaping the fruits of population control, or the bloody agenda of abortion."

As my colleague Steve Bonta and I discussed on Thursday's episode of The New American Daily, it's refreshing to hear a world leader talk like a sane person. Since Joe Biden was installed in the White House, uninhibited destruction and madness has descended on the planet. Wars have erupted all over the world and the White House has been run by Marxists and mentally ill DEI hires whose presence on the national stage has demoralized the sensible Americans who keep the country running.

Make no mistake: Socialism and cultural Marxism are societal diseases. They impoverish nations, turn people into imbeciles, foment social strife, and crush the human spirit. That's evident in the government's market intervention, the equity movement, the trans movement, and the "anti-colonialism” movement. None of it makes sense, and everyone who’s part of it is rabidly and stupidly angry.

Leftism in nearly all its forms flies in the face of God’s design for humanity. We are designed to have traditional families, to innovate and create relatively free of state obstruction, and to live in relative harmony with each other. We are designed to have as our authority not the state, but God and God alone.

But today, we the sane and sensible people of the world are constantly assaulted with insane ideas and policies. We now find ourselves defending basic biology, combating state-sponsored racism (reverse racism is still racism), and defending the point that hiring people based on anything other than merit will hurt industry and kill people traveling in airplanes.

We are also having to defend the origins of this nation and push back on the “colonialism” drivel. Colonialism is a poisonous and idiotic thought trend without any sensible answers. Show me one part of the world that is not inhabited by descendants of people who took that land from others.

There’s no doubt the profoundly imbecilic and destructive ideas and policies assaulting us are designed to make us lose our minds. The Conspiracy understands human nature and they know how to rile people up and push societies into unrest. That’s why it’s more important than ever that we keep our cool and fight back in measured and wise ways.

But whatever we do, we must fight back.

The time for timidity is over, unless you want your children and grandchildren to grow up in totalitarianism. We must use the many liberties we still have to smash the globalists’ agenda. It starts with spreading accurate, pro-American information. Share articles, books, and any other type of “red pill” content with friends, family, and even co-workers (when appropriate). But whatever you do, stop being silent. It’s this silence, this apathy, this timidity that has allowed the destroyers to take the societal wheel. We must take the wheel back.

Readers, take comfort in the fact that the globalist-Marxist movement is a hollow one. While they might have captured the institutions, their agenda rests on pretense and bluff. Their ideas are contrary to human nature in every way. Their ideas, if honestly expressed, would be rejected by 99 percent of the people in the world. That’s why they lie about everything.

John Birch Society Founder Robert Welch made this point repeatedly. “Truth, reality, human instinct, and the overwhelming weight of human desire are on our side,” he said. “We have these points in our favor against a Conspiracy that must depend on falsehood, cunning terror, utilized by less than five percent of the population.”

Welch knew that if people truly understood the globalists’ plans, their efforts will be crushed with such intensity and rapidity that it would take them generations to begin staging another global coup. That’s why he lived by the mantra, “Education is our total strategy and truth our only weapon.” So arm yourself with knowledge and bravely perpetuate truth.

I'll end with this from Welch:

Modern man is simply being played for a sucker by an immoral gang of sophisticated criminals. These cunning megalomaniacs seek to make themselves the absolute rulers of the human race.... Although they now occupy most of the positions of great prestige and influence in Washington, London, and Paris, as well as in the educational, financial and publishing circles of the whole world, their power rests entirely on bluff, pretense, and deception. Their success and their purposes are contrary to the whole current of human history. They are sitting precariously on the gigantic powder keg of all honest human emotions. Despite their arrogant assurance on the contemporary scene, they are well aware that sooner or later, the whole framework of their cruel power will be blown pieces by a mighty uprising of the incalculable forces of man's forces moral principles, love for freedom, and common sense. How soon that day of delivery comes will depend on you.
