Take Your Medicine, Little Man, or Lose Your Meal Ticket

Working Brits have more COVID liberty than Americans — really! On vax mandates, Pfizer's "new" pill, and the latest on "charmless" Greta Thunberg

America, wake up! The British, from whom we seceded for freedom's sake, don't have vaccine mandates. These particular individual rights are more protected in the U.K. than in the United States.

This week's Hard Truth with David Vance and Ilana Mercer teases out the difference between British and American vaccine-mandate tyranny: The United States loses. And, it's not even close!

Ilana Mercer

The WHO has redefined what vaccines are whilst Pfizer produces a pill less effective than ivermectin, costs vastly more, yet works in the same way as a protease inhibitor!

Finally, global-warming activist Greta Thunberg goes death metal! To this poor, singularly charmless girl we say, "Growl on Greta!"
