In this week's episode, we talk with Luis Valdes of Gun Owners of America. Luis is the Florida state director of the organization, a national spokesperson, and the Director of Outreach for Puerto Rico and U.S. Virgin Islands.

Luis shares his personal story of his family's escape from Castro's communist Cuba, the nature and pattern of most revolutions, and how we can prevent such a catastrophe here in the States. He also touches on America's pacifist streak, fake republicans, and an effort to abolish the ATF.
