In this insightful episode of “2A for Today,” Dr. Joe Wolverton, II, engages with Adam Kraut, Executive Director of the Second Amendment Foundation, to analyze the pro-gun victories from the November election and the critical role of lower federal courts in defending the right to keep and bear arms. The discussion explores the prospects for federal reciprocal constitutional and concealed carry laws, the ongoing threat of federal red flag laws, and the pressing need to dismantle the ATF’s illegal gun owner registry. Adam also weighs in on whether President Trump could—and would—unilaterally abolish the ATF, and what such a bold move would mean for the future of the Second Amendment. This is a must-listen episode for anyone committed to protecting our natural right to self-defense.
