In this insightful episode of “2A for Today,” Dr. Joe Wolverton, II, talks with Dudley Brown, President of the National Association for Gun Rights, about what gun owners can expect for the Second Amendment under a Trump administration. Dudley emphasizes the importance of remaining vigilant in defense of gun rights, regardless of which party holds power in Washington. Join us for a crucial conversation on the challenges and opportunities ahead, and why the fight to protect our natural right to keep and bear arms must continue—no matter who’s in the White House
