Get ready for an electrifying episode of “2A for Today” as Dr. Joe Wolverton, II, sits down with the bold and unapologetic Maj Toure, founder of Black Guns Matter. Discover the compelling origin story behind this groundbreaking movement and how it’s igniting a revolution in underserved communities across the country. Maj reveals the crucial education Black Guns Matter provides, equipping everyday Americans with the knowledge and confidence to exercise their right to protect their life, liberty, and property, even with firearms. In this extraordinarily candid conversation, you’ll hear why the fight for the Second Amendment is far from over and why every individual needs to step up and take action. This is one episode you don’t want to miss—tune in, get inspired, and join the movement to protect our natural right to keep and bear arms!
