In this compelling episode of "2A for Today," Dr. Wolverton sits down with Bill Sack, Director of Legal Operations for the Second Amendment Foundation, to unpack critical legal battles that could reshape the future of gun rights in America. Bill provides an insider's perspective on the VanDerStok case, currently before the Supreme Court, and the international lawsuit filed by Mexico against gun manufacturer Smith & Wesson. Tune in to hear why these cases are pivotal to the fight for the right to keep and bear arms, and why individual involvement is more crucial than ever in defending our natural rights. This is a must-listen for every patriot committed to preserving liberty!
