In this thought-provoking episode of “2A for Today,” host Dr. Joe Wolverton sits down with Erich Pratt of the Gun Owners of America to discuss the intersection of Christian pacifism and the right to keep and bear arms. Together, they delve into biblical teachings on self-defense, explore historical and contemporary views within Christianity, and provide a nuanced analysis of how faith informs the debate on gun rights. Tune in for a deep and insightful conversation that bridges theology and the Second Amendment.
