In 1887, a group of occultists created a mystery school calling its “The Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn”. Many cultural figures that exerted a great influence on our society passed through its doors. They would go on to spread its message of yoga, tarot cards and astral projection to the wider culture. It was the birth of what we today call “The New Age” movement. But this movement was not relegated to mere eccentrics and adepts of the occult. It spread far beyond the shadowy doors of the mystery school and influenced many institutions that hold sway today.
