Bypassing the Controlled Media

If the global elites were to spell out for the public at large what their “Great Reset” really means for humanity, the American people and the other peoples of the world would reject it. Consider the claim that “You’ll own nothing. And you’ll be happy.” That incredible assertion was made in a video titled “8 predictions for the world in 2030” from the World Economic Forum (WEF), a key group behind the Great Reset. How many people would really want to own nothing? How many would be “happy” owning nothing?

On the other hand, how many people would recognize that, if they did not own anything, they would no longer be free, but would instead be serfs beholden to the State that owns everything?

That does not sound like a happy prospect. But it is a realistic prospect, considering the powerful forces now at work via the WEF and other entities to bring about what is now called the “Great Reset.” It is also a prospect long advanced by socialists and communists going back to the Communist Manifesto, which called for the “abolition of private property.”

Do most people really want this? Even if they did, would they still support it if they understood that the imposition of full-fledged socialism, from the Russian Revolution of 1917 to the present day, is not about equitably sharing the wealth but is instead about controlling both the wealth and the people? We think not!

Our would-be masters of the world, who fully intend to impose global socialism via their Great Reset, also think not. We know this because of their use of deception (e.g., “You’ll be happy”) to beguile the American people and others into giving up their freedoms. We also know this because of the censorship they engage in to keep the truth from getting out.

In his cover story in this issue of the magazine, Alex Newman notes not only how climate alarmism is being used as a rationale for implementing the Great Reset, but also how information debunking the alarmism is being censored. We encourage everyone to read this article exposing the Great Reset, as well as our new The Great Reset and Transhumanism 100-page bookazine.

In addition to censoring the truth from alternative sources of information, another form of deception that the establishment opinion cartel engages in is to filter what globalists and socialists say in their own confabs, when they confer with each other. In this case, the purpose is to make the globalist cabal’s machinations more acceptable to an unsuspecting and misinformed public that otherwise would be horrified if the coverage were unsanitized.

To bypass this filtration of the news, The New American is sending a four-person team led by Mr. Newman to the UN Climate Change Conference in Sharm El Sheikh, Egypt, in November. They will be there for the critical last days of the conference, and so far as we know will be the only accredited alternative media there. We encourage everyone to go to TheNewAmerican.com daily November 15-18 for their live, on-the-scene updates about what is really happening there.

The globalist cabal may be obscuring the truth with a dense fog of deception, but The New American and its parent organization, The John Birch Society, are lifting the fog simply by shining the light of truth on the deception.
