Corsi Strikes Back at the Deep State

Special Counsel Robert S. Mueller has cause to be worried. Jerome Corsi is fighting back. He has opened a new battlefield in America's fight against the Deep State, the shadowy globalists who have been engaged in an all-out treasonous campaign for the past two years to overturn the 2016 elections and overthrow President Donald Trump.

Jerome Corsi has announced that he will not roll over and accept a plea deal from Team Mueller, a "deal" that would require him to perjure himself, to swear falsely to having committed crimes he has not committed. But he has gone further. He has gone on offense. On December 3, his attorneys, Larry Klayman and David Gray, filed a criminal and ethics complaint against Mueller and his prosecutorial and media staff. The complaint, which was filed with Acting Attorney General Matthew Whitaker and other appropriate legal authorities, call for Mueller and members of his Special Counsel team to be prosecuted for "gross prosecutorial misconduct and criminal acts" against Corsi. They also call for them to be disbarred. In a video interview with The New American (available online) on December 3, the same day his complaint was filed, Dr. Corsi passionately defended his case and provided details concerning the outrageous criminal methods employed by Mueller and his minions to intimidate and squeeze witnesses into providing the false testimony needed to further attack President Trump.

For those who may be unfamiliar with Dr. Corsi or the current drama in which he is ensnared, allow us to offer this brief intro: Dr. Jerome Corsi is a well-known investigative journalist, political analyst, commentator, and best-selling author. He received his Ph.D. in political science from Harvard, is a licensed securities broker, has worked in banking and investment, and has authored 20 books, including his recent Killing the Deep State: The Fight to Save President Trump. His newest book, Silent No More, which provides the shocking details of the grueling interrogation sessions under Team Mueller, is being released as we write.

Dr. Corsi came into Robert Mueller's cross hairs because, Mueller alleges, Corsi was a link in the "Trump-Russia collusion" effort to steal the 2016 election from Hillary Clinton. According to Corsi's complaint, Mueller is seeking "to coerce knowingly-false testimony from Dr. Corsi to falsely 'prove' that Dr. Corsi had acted as a liaison between Roger Stone and Wikileaks leader Julian Assange on the one hand and the Trump presidential campaign on the other hand concerning the public release of emails from the email computer servers of the Democratic National Committee ('DNC')."

President Trump has repeatedly called the Mueller probe a "witch hunt," and rightly so. It has produced not a shred of evidence to support its "collusion" narrative, despite costing taxpayers millions of dollars. Its main accomplishment — and its obvious objective — has been to impede the Trump agenda for the past year and a half and provide the entire anti-Trump media complex with daily blather points that can be spun into weaponized headlines against Trump. Their hope is that the daily drumbeat of bogus stories and empty charges will enervate and hamper the president, as well as undermine his standing with the American public.

On May 17, 2017, Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein appointed Robert Swan Mueller III as a special counsel for the ostensible purpose of investigating "any links and/or coordination between the Russian government and individuals associated with the campaign of President Donald Trump."

At the time of Mueller's appointment, President Trump said, "As I have stated many times, a thorough investigation will confirm what we already know — there was no collusion between my campaign and any foreign entity. I look forward to this matter concluding quickly. In the meantime, I will never stop fighting for the people and the issues that matter most to the future of our country.”

Clearly, there was no intention on the part of Mueller and those he serves to conclude the matter quickly. They are drawing out this subversive farce as long as possible, for the purpose of finding more victims whom they can terrorize into furthering their schemes against the president.

Dr. Corsi’s complaint charges that he “has been threatened with immediate indictment by Mueller’s prosecutorial staff unless he testifies falsely,” and that he “is placed in an impossible, no-win scenario and is in immediate legal jeopardy.”

Rather than knuckling under, Dr. Corsi is fighting heroically. He deserves the support of every American.
