Letters to the Editor

Plotting America's Collapse

Democrats are executing the infamous Cloward-Piven strategy to catastrophically collapse our economy so America can be remade as a socialist tyranny — certainly at least fascist, but possibly even communist.

Illegal immigration is one of the key components of their strategy. Our welfare system and medical care are to be overwhelmed by millions who will rely on cradle-to-grave welfare, free medical care, and education in their native language so they don't need to assimilate. There is talk of giving them Medicaid. Illegals (being dumped heavily in swing states) will then show gratitude by voting for Democrats, replacing black and Latino voters leaving the Democrat party.

Severe inflation is being created by massive government spending. It diminishes savings and purchasing power, as well as the quality of life for most Americans. Massive spending bills are designed to increase national debt far beyond the point at which we will be able to service it, and inflation will greatly exacerbate this problem. This will make further debt increases impossible, while social-spending demands continue to increase. We will be bankrupted.

The supply chain is deliberately being allowed to collapse, with possible intervention to clear roadblocks being withheld. Racial strife generated by CRT and similar hyper-racist programs is designed to divide us with anti-white bigotry and convince people of color they are unable to succeed because of their color.

The Next Move

Although there are many moves being made against America, the most pressing is destruction of election integrity. Now we have Joe Biden telling us how he will not flinch or waver in his support of the Democrats' efforts for "election integrity," and will fight all enemies of America, foreign and domestic. I'm sorry, I hate to generalize, but this guy has lied to us every step of the way, from day one, about everything.

All efforts made by Democrats regarding elections are basically to gain control of elections and control of America. They refuse to clear inaccurate information from voter-registration lists of the 50 states, which would assure us of an accurate count. They, at their very core, are against voter ID, which is merely a way of assuring the person voting is an American citizen. On these two issues, there is no debate; they admit their position.

Now they are attempting to take authority over elections away from the states and impose federal regulations and conditions on the election process. In doing so, they would have the power to grant voting rights to illegal immigrants and allow mail-in ballots from anyone (much different than absentee ballots, which are always verified). Mail-in ballots are important to them because when an election isn't going their way, they figure out how many votes they need to win and, suddenly, the poll workers are counting the arriving "mail-in ballots." This is how one party gains control over a country.

Pay attention to what goes on in Washington regarding the elections. If the federal government gets control over our election process, we will no longer have a say in what happens in America. The federal government will decide what we can and cannot do. America will be gone, and we will be ruled by “the State.”

What can you do? Get involved in your local politics, ensure patriots are being elected to public office, and vote out those who refuse to stand up and put America first. We need our states to be strong. Most importantly, talk to people, make them aware of what is going on, and ask them to get involved.
