Mass Migration a Plot to Destroy Christian West

Shortly before Europe was hit with the recent terror attack in Brussels, one prominent European leader was warning that the growing tsunami of Middle Eastern immigrants flooding into the West is actually an organized plot by internationalist extremists to destroy liberty, nationhood, Western civilization, and Christendom. Speaking March 15 at Budapest's National Museum in a historic speech that was largely ignored or distorted by the establishment press, Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orbán called on Europeans to unite against the threat emanating from the European Union headquartered in Brussels.

In a speech that may go down in history as a crucial turning point, Orbán told Hungarians: "Today Europe is as fragile, weak and sickly as 'a flower being eaten away by a hidden worm.'" He added: "Europe is not free. Because freedom begins with speaking the truth."

Today, he explained, it is forbidden across much of Europe to speak the truth. "It is forbidden to say that those arriving are not refugees, but that Europe is threatened by migration," he said. "It is forbidden to say that tens of millions are ready to set out in our direction. It is forbidden to say that immigration brings crime and terror to our countries. It is forbidden to point out that the masses arriving from other civilizations endanger our way of life, our culture, our customs and our Christian traditions."

"It is forbidden to point out that the purpose of settling people here is to reshape the religious and cultural landscape of Europe, and to re-engineer its ethnic foundations — thereby eliminating the last barrier to internationalism: the nation-states," he said, pointing out the fact that globalists are working to crush nationhood and national sovereignty on the road to what they often call their New World Order. "It is forbidden to say that Brussels is now stealthily devouring more and more slices of our national sovereignty, and that in Brussels many are now making a plan for a United States of Europe — for which no one has ever given authorization."

The real danger, though, is not even the tsunami of Islamic immigrants, the overwhelming majority of whom are military-aged males. "If we want to halt this mass migration, first we must curb Brussels," he said. "The main danger to Europe's future does not come from those who want to come here, but from Brussels' fanatical internationalism. We should not allow Brussels to place itself above the law. We shall not allow it to force upon us the bitter fruit of its cosmopolitan immigration policy." He vowed that there would be no urban areas in Hungary beyond the reach of the law, so-called "no-go zones." There will be no mass disorder or immigrant riots. And there shall be "no gangs hunting down our women and daughters."

As for the EU's agenda to force nations to accept tens of thousands and then hundreds of thousands of Islamic immigrants, Hungary will refuse. "We shall not allow others to tell us whom we can let into our home and country, whom we will live alongside, and with whom we will share our country," he said. "We reject the forced resettlement scheme, and we shall tolerate neither blackmail, nor threats. The time has come to ring the warning bell. The time has come for opposition and resistance. The time has come to gather allies to us. The time has come to raise the flag of proud nations. The time has come to prevent the destruction of Europe, and to save the future of Europe." He called on every Hungarian and on every European, regardless of party, to unite.

Evoking memories of Hungarian and Polish resistance to German and Soviet tyranny, Orbán said

Europeans knew how to resist oppression from afar — tyranny that would have swallowed up Hungary if it could have. “Faceless” globalists, he said, intend to eliminate everything that is “unique, autonomous, age-old and national.” They aim to “blend cultures, religions and populations, until our many-faceted and proud Europe will finally become bloodless and docile.” “And if we resign ourselves to this outcome, our fate will be sealed, and we will be swallowed up in the enormous belly of the United States of Europe,” he added. The task for Hungarians and other Europeans who have not yet “lost all common sense,” then, is “to defeat, rewrite and transform the fate intended for us.”

For the sake of Western civilization, Christendom, liberty, and the survival of independent nations, Europeans and Americans should consider Orbán’s warnings carefully — and resist the globalist agenda. The alternative, as Orbán so eloquently put it, is slavery.
