No More Public Schools

I've said this before, and I'll say it again, just where in the Constitution does it give the national government any authority to be involved in education? Nowhere that I know of. And just what tortured interpretation do you have to apply to whatever part of the Constitution to make it say that it does?

Anyone who believes public education has the potential to create a positive experience for children should spend some time reading the works of Samuel Blumenfeld and John Taylor Gatto. I would especially recommend trying to find a copy of the late Blumenfeld's classic work Is Public Education Necessary?

My wife and I taught our three boys at home from kindergarten to 12th grade. Their first school experience was the local college and all three graduated university. Two studied engineering and computers and graduated at the top of their class at UC Irvine. All three are committed Christians and attend our local church together.

Covid Truth

Covid did not kill people. The treatment protocols of hospitals and doctors did. If your primary care doctor or nurse told you to give it seven days to see if symptoms get worse and then go to the ER, then you need a different doctor or nurse. The doctors unwilling to prescribe Ivermectin or HCQ to treat Covid should all have their licenses revoked. They all went against their Hippocratic Oath to "do no harm."

Stopping Election Fraud

When we go back to paper ballots, no early voting, no drop boxes, no mail-in ballots without a verified excuse, and no ballot counting after Election Day except for the military, then we will not have widespread fraud. Why does someone have to vote months before an election? There is not a single reason why. Until these changes are made we will remain a banana republic when it comes to elections.

NWO Censorship

Since some of the last stumbling blocks for the New World Order crowd were free speech/religion, the right to bear arms, and the right to not self-incriminate, it looks like the virus/climate/abortion/racism/hate-speech scares going on will be the tools to dupe the sheep into accepting more restrictions.

The establishment can no longer hide its information manipulation, so it is trying to use language as a cloak, to pretend that it is “doing good.” The clear but unstated premise for the argument of information control is that the public is too stupid to make up their own minds for themselves, and too evil to be trusted with facts.

Well, we pay for all of those aholes via our taxes and economic support. They should be loyal to us by being loyal to our core rule of law. Instead, we are to be kept from words and numbers that they don't want us to hear.
