Quick Quotes

Chris Christie's New Book Slams Both Joe Biden and Donald Trump

Chris Christie

GageSkidmore

"An election for president was held on November 3, 2020. Joe Biden won. Donald Trump did not. That is the truth. Any claim to the contrary is untrue."

In his new book Republican Rescue: Saving the Party From Truth Deniers, Conspiracy Theorists, and the Dangerous Policies of Joe Biden, former New Jersey governor and Trump supporter Chris Christie seems to be campaigning for liberal support to help him gain the GOP's 2024 nomination if Trump decides not to run. Certainly, his claim that Biden won and Trump lost is contestable, considering the massive evidence of vote fraud.

Ohio GOP Congressman Sees the State's Redistricting Plan as a Plot to Unseat Him

"The gerrymandered map was just released this week and it draws my home into a district halfway across the state ... a district that currently favors Democrats by 19 percentage points."

His consistent conservative voting record seems to have angered some Ohio politicians, who have made it more difficult for Congressman Jim Jordan to be reelected.

Doug Peterson

“Allowing physicians to consider these early treatments [hydroxychloroquine and ivermectin] will free them to evaluate additional tools that could save lives, keep patients out of the hospital, and provide relief for our already strained healthcare system.”

In an October 15 legal opinion, Nebraska Attorney General

Doug Peterson stated that doctors can legally prescribe off-label drugs such as ivermectin and hydroxychloroquine to treat COVID-19 so long as they have the patient’s informed consent.

Completed Redistricting in 12 States Increases Likelihood GOP Will Retake Control of House

“The floor for Republicans has been raised. Our incumbents actually are getting stronger districts.”

GOP congressman Tom Emmer of Minnesota, the chairman of the House Republicans’ campaign committee, is very optimistic about his party’s effort to seize numerical control of the House of Representatives in the 2022 mid-term elections.

Biden’s Court-packing Commission Releases an Early Report

“If, as some conservatives feared, Biden wanted the Commission to produce an endorsement of court-packing in order to generate political momentum for that idea, he wouldn’t have included so many court-packing skeptics among the members. He would instead have packed the Commission with packers!”

The Biden-appointed commission was asked to study such topics as expanding the number of justices who sit on the U.S. Supreme Court (court-packing) and term limits for Supreme Court justices. As George Mason University Law Professor Ilya Somin points out, the panel’s preliminary materials indicate a distaste for court-packing, but a positive attitude toward placing a time limitation on the terms of the justices.

Biden Comptroller of the Currency Appointee Wants to Bankrupt Energy Suppliers

Saule Omarova

Senate Banking Committee

“Here what I’m thinking about is primarily coal and oil and gas industry. A lot of the smaller players in that industry are going to probably go bankrupt in short order. At least, we want them to go bankrupt if we want to tackle climate change. Right?”

Research gathered by the conservative American Accountability Foundation backs the claim that Biden nominee Saule Omarova advocates communism for America. A Cornell University law professor who graduated from Moscow State University with a Lenin Personal Academic Scholarship, she has publicly targeted the U.S. energy industry for extinction. Several Senate Democrats seem poised to join with Republican colleagues in order to block her nomination.
