"We have a lawless president who is saying to five million people, 'You want to stay here? Do A, B, C, D and E.' Where did the A, B, C, D and E come from?"

Now a columnist with WorldNetDaily, Andrew Napolitano believes that impeachment is the only recourse to deal with the president's unconstitutional activity.

Americans Named in the Torture Report Could Be Prosecuted Abroad

"If I am someone implicated in the torture report, I am thinking twice about traveling to Europe anytime soon."

Referring to the UN's International Convention on Torture, which the United States has ratified, American University law professor Steve Vladeck believes there could be prosecution of Americans by a United Nations court.

Comments About President's Daughters Gain More Network Coverage Than ObamaCare Creator's Labeling Americans "Stupid Voters"

"The networks rushed to cover a Hill staffer's silly comments on Facebook, but waited more than a week to cover Jonathan Gruber's serious admission that voters were deceived about a policy that affects every American."

Claiming to be America's media watchdog, the Media Research Center found that the major networks

(ABC, CBS, and NBC) gave twice the coverage to Facebook's posting of Elizabeth Lauten's remarks than they gave to Jonathan Gruber's revealing comments.

Obama's Amnesty Scheme Not Even an Executive Order

"We don't even have a really significant, direct, legal direction that we can ascertain precisely what the president is doing. It's a stunning event in my view."

Noting that President Obama has stated "more than 20 times" over recent years that he does not have the authority to make a law with a memo, Senator Jeff Sessions (R-Ala.) added that all of the benefits now available to illegal immigrants had been rejected by Congress.

Refusal to Bake a Cake for a Same-sex Couple Lands the Baker in Court

"I do like doing the wedding cakes. But I don't like having the government tell me which ones I can make and which ones I can't make, and trying to control that part of my life."

When Jack Phillips, the owner of Masterpiece Cakeshop in Lakewood, Colorado, refused to create a cake for a homosexual male couple celebrating their "wedding," the Colorado Civil Rights Commission dragged him into court.

Use of Torture Could Endanger Many Americans

"Now we have American hostages in orange jumpsuits because we put people in orange jumpsuits. We played into the enemy's hand."

A former FBI agent who argued against the CIA's interrogation tactics, Ali Soufan thinks the beheading of several Americans by ISIS is retaliation for the treatment given prisoners held at Guantanamo Bay's jail.

GOP Backing of Federal Funding Angers Some in Congress

Jeff Duncan

"Voters were loud and clear that they wanted Republicans to act boldly against the President's unlawful
