“I think it’s right to stop a president who just decided that he didn’t like federal law and came up with his own immigration laws. We sued him, rightfully so, for violating federal law and we won.”

U.S. District Judge Andrew Hanen ruled that President Obama had, during his presidency, overstepped his authority when he created a path for citizenship for illegal immigrants via his DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) program. Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton saluted Judge Hanen’s ruling. The Biden administration will appeal.

Cuban People Stage Largest Anti-government Demonstration Since 1959

“This is the people, and not just ‘the people,’ but the youth. They’ve decided they are not going to continue leaving the country. They want change here.”

Lifelong Cuban Guillermo Farinas, now 59 years old, has spent several periods in prison for protesting the Castro regime. He was thrilled when he saw thousands of demonstrators angrily demanding freedom.

America’s 20 Years of Training Afghanistan’s Military a Resounding Failure

“The Americans trained these forces for 20 years but they were not capable of keeping their outposts for four days when the Americans left. There was no fighting between security forces and the Taliban. These areas were abandoned to the Taliban without the firing of a single shot.”

Local tribal elder Abdul Wahid Whadat summarized the Taliban's takeover of much of Afghanistan as American forces departed the nation.

Boxing Legend Refuses to Back Away From His Patriotism

“For about 50 years, people have asked me not to keep saying ‘I love America.’ Well I do and I’m not ashamed. Don’t leave it; Love it. Happy Fourth of July.”

Former heavyweight champion and gold medalist at the 1968 Olympic Games George Foreman has also chided anthem-kneeling Colin Kaepernick and other well-known U.S. athletes who prefer to condemn the country that made them wealthy. He also lets people know he’s a fan of Donald Trump.

Washington and Wall Street Have Gone Off the Deep End

“Nearly 100 percent of Washington’s explosion of borrowing and spending is being monetized — that is, financed with fake credits snatched from thin air by the mad money printers at the Fed. In the last 365 days, Congress has enacted $6 trillion in Covid-Lockdown bailouts. This amount is 7.5 times the $800 billion loss of Gross Domestic Product during the same period.”

A former congressman, presidential advisor, and current critic of the economic suicide being practiced in Washington, David Stockman targets reckless money creation brought about by the actions of several recent presidents in league with the money creators at the Federal Reserve.

Former Congressman Gives His Assessment of the U.S. Failure in Afghanistan

Ron Paul

GageSkidmore

“Brown University’s Cost of War Project calculated the total cost of the [20-year] Afghanistan War at more than 20 trillion dollars and it took more than a quarter million lives. The Biden Administration may believe it is saving face by installing a military command of nearly 1,000 American troops in the U.S. Embassy in Kabul. Such a move establishes the Embassy as a legitimate military target rather than a diplomatic outpost and is both foolish and dangerous.”
