Why Should We Listen to Them?

It seems all you need is a microphone, and you can be as vapid as you like. See Madonna. If Madonna is so concerned about the have-nots, I suggest she donate some of her many homes to those have-nots. She can only live in one at a time. There are other brainless Hollywood types yelling through their mikes the same message as Madonna. Why not step up to the plate and share the wealth?

It always ends up the middle class's responsibility to take care of the have-nots. We are barely making it ourselves. When do we get to have some comfort in life? Hollywood has the excess wealth. Hollywood should be sharing more than their hot air.

The acting profession has never been noted for its intellectual prowess. Why listen to their prattle? Pressure them to share the burden, not guilt the middle class.

When in the course of human history have humans been fair? Liberals declare that life is not fair under U.S. constitutional government. When then has life been fair? Under socialism? (Ha, ha!) Under communism (Ha, ha!) Under fascism? (Ha, ha!)

An elite is always waiting to live large at the expense of the have-nots. That is the problem. Hollywood is part of the live-large crowd, so why are they so vocal?

They are part of the problem, not only money-wise, but morals-wise as well. Hollywood should clam up, or give it up, not hold fundraisers for others to give; they should give. Time to call Hollywood on the carpet; give it up for the have-nots. Madonna's bank accounts will do for starters, followed by Michael Moore's, Whoopie's, Cher's, etc.

Then there's the media, the politicians, financiers, and feminists. They are people who think they are smart enough, and deserving enough, to live your life for you and at your expense — people who make life miserable with their unbridled greed and lust for power.

I am smart enough to live my own life. How about you? Knowledge is the key, not phony brainwashing, or propagandizing, touted as education. It is our responsibility to learn the difference. We must seek knowledge. That is our responsibility, and our salvation, and our key to freedom and happiness. You cannot buy freedom and happiness at the grocery store.

Leftists Call Out Trump

That polecat President Donald Trump is bringing jobs back to America, and we don't want jobs; we want welfare. Who wants to work for money when we can vote for it? Trump is even going to build a wall on the southern border and keep illegal drugs from coming into this country. Yes, a sad day indeed, for that means illegal drugs will cost more. Only the wealthy will be able to afford them. What are our kids going to do? Proof enough, he's against the "poor" alright.

Also, you are not going to believe this: Trump was giving an interview the other day, and I could not help but notice he had a spot on his right shoe. (A small one, but it was still a spot.) There it was, right in broad daylight. I was so ashamed that he is our president. And that ain't all: He is for the government allowing people to own guns. Can you imagine how dangerous it will be to break in to a home? You could get shot doing that. The stuff in those homes belongs to us. We have a right to it.

Finally, Donald trump is committing the unpardonable sin: He Tweets! He is not just somewhat tweetistic. He is a Tweeter! Impeach him!

Our leftists must be geniuses. You can tell by the way they analyze both politics and science. In the science realm, back when Bill was president, Hillary and Joe Biden got together a team of Alinskyite scientists. They wanted to know if toilet tissue made a good nose wipe. They discovered that it is — if you wipe the nose first.
