Food Security at Risk, Cattleman Warns

In this video with The New American magazine's Alex Newman, cattle rancher Shad Sullivan—whose video on the culling of livestock during coronavirus went viral and was seen by many millions—explains that food security is still at risk. From the government's attacks on private property, to the monopolization of the industry, to globalist efforts to subvert U.S. sovereignty, the danger is enormous. Sullivan also speaks about some of the major obstacles facing independent producers and the threat of the New World Order's agenda.
