Seven-year-old Facing “Gender Transition” Via Mom Attends School as a Boy

Just weeks after a family judge wisely overruled a civil court’s decision to give sole custody of a seven-year-old boy to the mother seeking to “transition” him to female, the youngster has chosen to attend school as a boy.

As reported previously in The New American, on October 24 Family District Court Judge Kim Cooks reversed a jury’s earlier decision to take custody of the boy, James Younger, from father Jeff Younger in favor of his ex-wife, Dallas-area pediatrician Anne Georgulas, who planned to “gender transition” James Younger into a “female” via chemical castration.

In her reversal Cooks ruled that Jeffrey Younger would share joint guardianship of James with Georgulas, and would have an equal say in medical and other decisions made on behalf of their son.

As a result of that decision, seven-year-old James, who, along with his twin brother, Jude, stays with his father during the week, chose last week to attend school as a boy. Previously, according to LifeSiteNews, his mother had enrolled James into kindergarten as a girl.

LifeSite reported that “according to a Facebook post from the Save James page — which is now run by friends of the family, as Mr. Younger is under a gag order — James chose to wear boy clothes to school while he was staying with his father.”

Accompanying a photo of James dressed for school like a normal little boy was the caption: “Going to school. This is what it looks like when JAMES gets to choose!” Additionally, the post included a photo of James and his brother dressed masculinely for church, along with the caption: “James and Jude proud to be men!”

Before the gag order, Jeffrey Younger recounted on SaveJames.com that when James was three years old, Georgulas determined to transition James to female. “She began dressing him as a girl, calling him by the name ‘Luna’ and enrolled him in ‘social transitioning’ therapy to prepare him for chemical castration,” wrote the father. He went on to recall that his son was enrolled “in Coppell Schools as a girl.... The teachers and administrators know that he is a boy, but the other parents and students are unaware.”

The father also stated that James only acted in a feminine manner when with his mother. “James presents as a boy with me and he presents as a girl with his mom,” Younger related. “He gets dressed as a boy at his mother’s home and he comes out to me as a boy. That means that he’s comfortable as a boy at his mother’s home.”

Since SaveJames.com was taken down, friends and supporters of father Jeffrey and son James Younger have created a new website, sjsavethousands.com, in an effort to defend, not just James, but thousands of other children whose parents or guardians are forcing them into “gender transition” via chemical castration, puberty blockers, and cross-sex hormones. LifeSiteNews.com noted that supporters “see the fight as far from over and are focusing their efforts on legislation to protect children from gender ‘transitioning.’”
