

Teen Eagles: Bringing Biblical Worldview Back to Politics

In this interview with The New American magazine's Alex Newman from the Eagle Council in St. Louis, Teen Eagles President Andrew Muller explained how his organization is working to bring a biblical worldview back into politics. This homeschooled teen, a top young conservative leader, talks about his homeschooling experience and how home education can help save America. He also discusses the importance of the Bible and the Constitution, getting involved, and so much more. "We have got to do something now!" he says. Muller has some amazing things to say — check it out and share!
