“My Son Hunter” Film Coming in September

Conservative news outlet Breitbart announced on Thursday its initial foray into film — what it called “scripted entertainment” — with the pending release of My Son Hunter. The trailer will be available to the public next week, and the film will be available via streaming starting September 7 at MySonHunter.com.

Directed by Robert Davi (whom many James Bond fans will remember as the villain Franz Sanchez in License to Kill), the film, although fictional, is largely based on Hunter Biden’s own personal revelation Beautiful Things, released in April 2021.

The film, according to Breitbart, follows Hunter Biden “as he navigates a tangled web of prostitution, partying, international business dealings, drugs, sex, Chinese spies, a laptop from Hell, Ukrainian oligarchs, more sex, more drugs, and, of course, his responsibilities to [his father, Joe Biden].”

Breitbart makes clear that the film is not a documentary, “but it may as well be,” as it is based on numerous credible sources. Added Breitbart:

My Son Hunter puts the lens squarely on Hunter, his corrupt business dealings, his relationship with his father, and a lifestyle that would make rock stars jealous.

But through the haze of a crack pipe and above the din of the parties and the outbursts ... somewhere lies the truth.

The film comes with a warning:

This picture contains Sex, Prostitution, Drugs, Cronyism, Money Laundering, More Sex, a Laptop from Hell, Chinese Spies, Ukrainian ‘Businessmen’, the CCP, the Selling Out of America, the Big Guy, Corn Pop, More Sex, Additional Drugs, and ... Family.

Stills from the movie are themselves nearly R-rated, so viewers should be aware that the film reveals just how far Hunter Biden has descended into the netherworld of sin and degradation.

The film is likely 1) to be shunned by the mainstream media as it depicts the media’s deliberate coverup of Hunter’s “laptop from hell” prior to the 2020 presidential election; 2) to be ignored by Democrats who want to remain inside the bubble of ignorance about the true state of the Biden family and its connections with America’s No. 1 enemy, China; and 3) to confirm for Republicans what they already suspected all along.

Breitbart CEO Larry Solov hopes others will see the movie:

Breitbart has always believed freedom flourishes with more voices, not less. As we begin distributing films, that belief will be a guiding light.

In 2020, Big Tech colluded with the mainstream media to bury one of the biggest political scandals to protect their chosen presidential candidate. It was unprecedented and outrageous.

My Son Hunter is a film they never wanted you to see, which is precisely why Americans must.
