UN-funded “Sex Ed” Teaches U.S. Children Perversion

From FreedomProject Education:

Under the guise of promoting “health,” multiple United Nations agencies are funding a radical “sex education” curriculum that teaches American middle-school children between ages 11 and 13 all about homosexuality, lesbianism, transgenderism, and more. Parents, meanwhile, are being misled about the content. Critics are outraged.

The 6th grade sex-ed program, dubbed HealthSmart and produced by ETR Associates, teaches 11-year-old children that for some children, “it’s as if they were born in the wrong body.” As part of the lesson on “gender identity,” they learn about various “transgender” categories before learning that “transgender people can have any sexual orientation.”

The children are also bombarded with homosexual propaganda, learning that “some people are sexually attracted to the same sex — boys to boys or girls to girls.” They also learn that some people “are sexually attracted to both sexes.” Among other goals, the program normalizes different types of “sexual orientation.”

On teaching children to have sex, the program teaches them about “negotiating safer sex practices and the use of condoms.” Obviously, there is nothing in the entire document to discuss why people, cultures, and civilizations throughout history have reserved sexual intimacy for marriage, much less about the fact that God strongly condemns fornication.

In a sample permission slip obtained by The Newman Report, parents are never told that children will be taught about homosexuality, transgenderism, fornication, and so on. Instead, parents are merely told children will learn about “dating,” “violence prevention,” “human trafficking,” “internet safety,” “nutrition,” “HIV/STD prevention,” “sexual education,” and “drug prevention.”

In short, parents are being deceived, on purpose, by “education” officials.
