Frontline Doctor Letter From Prison

Physician, lawyer, mother, and founder of America's Frontline Doctors (AFLDS) Simone Gold is serving a 60-day prison sentence for a nonviolent misdemeanor — unlawful entry to and remaining in a restricted area of the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021. Obama-appointed U.S. District Judge Christopher Cooper also ordered her to pay a $9,500 fine, and she will remain on federally supervised release for one year following her prison term.

She described her arrest days after the January 6 incident as a “violent assault,” saying that an “FBI SWAT team raided my home with assault rifles and a battering ram.” She had no prior criminal record.

Gold reported to a federal prison in Miami, Florida, at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, July 26. She has remained in contact with the AFLDS mailing list, and her latest email reads in part:

I remain in this Miami prison, serving time for a bogus trespassing charge.

My computer time is limited to 15 minutes per session. I wanted to express my thanks for the countless letters of support and prayers. Even the prison staff noted the volume of supportive mail. I am both humbled and strengthened. Thank you!

Using the excuse of COVID-19, all incoming female inmates are put into a punishment isolation cell under the guise of a “quarantine.” They told me it wasn't for punishment, but it was certainly a punishing and inhumane experience. Apparently, men are not subjected to this treatment.

Another form of arbitrary punishment is moving me, along with other inmates, to new cells with no notice. A guard simply yells my name, and I'm expected to move at any moment. My staff knows that if I stop emailing or calling, it's because they have moved me or possibly put me back into isolation.

I've noticed activity in the prison that makes me fearful for my own safety. However, my spirits are high. I am more determined than ever to keep fighting for you and medical freedom.

She goes on to specify, “I have personally funded my legal defense, and not one dollar from AFLDS has been spent on my attorneys.” The postscript to her letter is particularly touching and includes an appeal for contact that must be of great importance for someone in her position:

P.S. If you want to send me a letter directly, here is my prison mailing address. I'd love to hear from you! Please include your email address so I can respond:
