Some of the most powerful banking institutions and their allies in government are positioned to steal trillions of dollars from Americans’ retirement and investment accounts using an institution created and run by a “former” CIA operative and Rockefeller minion.

It sounds like science fiction, but as Heartland Institute Vice President Justin Haskins explains in this interview on Behind The Deep State with The New American magazine’s Alex Newman, the plans are already tested and in place. All they’re waiting for now is the next big crash.

Haskins is the New York Times best-selling author of the hit new book The Next Big Crash: Conspiracy, Collapse, and the Men Behind History’s Biggest Heist. In it, he explores what financial experts such as investment banker David Webb and attorney Don Grande have called “The Great Taking.”

Don’t miss this explosive interview with information that may prove crucial to protecting you and your loved ones.
