August Border Report: Agents Handle 199k+ Illegals. Great Replacement Proceeds

By the end of August, the Biden administration will easily surpass its goal of forcing border agents to handle more than two million illegal aliens this year, the latest data from U.S. Customs and Border Protection show. But the news is hardly a surprise.

Border agents have dealt with well more than 200,000 illegals per month from March through June, and almost handled 200,00 in July, and Biden and his Homeland Security chief, Alejandro Mayorkas, have seen to it that the numbers began rising as soon as Biden took the oath of office.

As those numbers went public yesterday, Fox News's Bill Melugin posted multiple videos of the unstoppable Camp-of-the-Saints invasion at the southwest border with Mexico.

Upshot: The nation is headed for a cultural, financial, and political disaster of unprecedented proportions that will benefit the Democrat Party when the illegals Biden has freed begin voting.

Then again, that is why Biden's Border Treason is sometimes called The Great Replacement.

Breaking News: In July, 199,976 illegal immigrants were apprehended attempting to cross the U.S.-Mexico border. #BidenBorderCrisis

Latest Numbers

July's figure, 199,976, was slightly less than June's, but it brought the total number of illegals — "migrants" in leftist media code — for fiscal 2022, which ends September 30, to 1,976,480.

Those caught trying to jump the border totaled 181,552. With six weeks left to go in the fiscal year, that figure is 13.39 percent more than fiscal 2021's 1,734,686.

As per usual, almost all of the illegals were single adults: 134,362, which includes those stopped at ports of entry.

The administration has not posted the court-mandated number it released to colonize the heartland, but it typically releases about 40 percent.

If it follows precedent, CBP and Immigration and Customs Enforcement released 79,990.

Those monthly releases are as follows, and bring the total freed to disappear forever to an estimated 771,765:

- July (est): 79,990
- June: 79,652
- May: 95,318
- April: 117,989
- March: 80,116
- February: 55,043
- January: 62,573
- December: 74,799
- November: 83,725
- October: 42,560

Biden is breaking at least two, if not three, immigration statues by refusing to control the border and releasing apprehended illegals. He and Mayorkas might also be charged with aiding and abetting illegals, a federal crime.

All those offenses are impeachable.

At the Border

Bad as the numbers are, data and charts don't quite show the magnitude of the problem.

Reporting from ground zero of the invasion, Fox's Melugin frequently tweets alarming videos of the law-breaking "migrants" as they parade into the country.

"In the last two hours we have already seen approximately 300 migrants crossing illegally into Eagle Pass, TX, despite stormy weather," he tweeted yesterday.

"That includes this group of about 200 that just crossed. You cannot understand how nonstop this is unless you come here. It's that simple."

Two days ago, Melugin explained that "we've already witnessed 500+ migrants cross illegally into Eagle Pass, TX this morning alone, including this huge single group of 290. You'll see part of the group walk to the edge of a local highway before being stopped by TX DPS troopers. Almost all single adults."

Another shot featured two large groups of more than 200 that "crossed illegally into Eagle Pass, TX this morning, again, predominantly single adults. Eagle Pass is part of Border Patrol's Del Rio sector, which had seen approx 400,000 illegal crossings since October. Bigger than pop of New Orleans."

Citing population figures put the invasion in perspective. The total so far this year, 1,976,480, is larger than the population of every American city except Houston, Chicago, Los Angeles, and New York.

The city with the population closest to this tsunami of "migrants" is Phoenix, Arizona, which numbers a little more than 1.62 million.
