Border Agents Have Their Hands Full With Sex Offenders, Previously Deported Murderer

Border Patrol agents at the country's southwest frontier with Mexico have collared more than two dozen child molesters and other sex perverts since May 1.

Agents in the Laredo sector have had their hands full with seven of the previously deported sex fiends being caught in the last few days, while Rio Grande sector agents dealt with previously deported statutory rapists and a murderer.

During May, Customs and Border Protection reported, agents collared almost two-dozen of the perverts.

Four Mexicans

Agents bagged the first Mexican, Guillermo Martinez-Pedraza, in the wee hours of June 17.

The 25-year-old illegal-alien sex pervert was convicted in Manassas, Virginia, for sexual assault-carnal knowledge of a child and landed in the slammer for three years, CBP reported.

The jail time, apparently, did not teach Martinez-Pedraza to respect the law.

Hours later, they nabbed pervert No. 2, 31-year-old Juan Francisco Leal-Coronado, who was convicted in Houston of indecency with a child. He spent eight months in jail.

The third Mexican was Cesar Lopez-Pinon, wanted in Canton, Georgia, for child molestation.

Agents caught all three near Rio Bravo, just south of Laredo.

Laredo Sector agents also collared a child molester on Tuesday. The unnamed 38-year-old illegal Mexican, CPB reported, attempted to sexually assault a child in Dallas and landed in prison for two years.

So far this month, agents in the Laredo Sector have apprehended 11 sex offenders.

Twenty-three Sex Perverts Caught in May

Agents in the Rio Grande Sector bagged two sex perverts this week, CBP reported.

On Wednesday, agents in Kingsville, Texas, used a drone to arrest Gregorio Olivarez-Aguilar, age unrevealed, who served 26 months for child rape in Washington State, and also had an arrest there for kidnapping.

On Monday, agents nabbed one Juan Carlos Cornejo-Aleman, who served four years for statutory rape in Tennessee.

The sex offenders whom border agents catch are likely a small fraction of those who slip into the country, and once ensconced in a sanctuary that will protect them, continue raping and molesting women and children.

Border agents apprehended 23 convicted sex perverts in May, CBP reported.

At least two of the 23 were also human smugglers.

Other Arrests

Frighteningly, age does not seem to be a deterrent for sex perverts trying to get back into the country, as an arrest on Tuesday in the Del Rio Sector showed.

Agents at the Uvalde station caught 65-year-old Faustino Sanchez-Lugo, yet another illegal Mexican, CBP reported.

He was convicted of molesting a child in Seguin in 1978 and caught-re-entering the country 18 years ago.

Last week, Del Rio Sector agents at the Brackettville Station, west of San Antonio, arrested a previously deported convicted murderer, Javier Moya-Tentori, a 35-year-old illegal Mexican, CBP reported. Sentenced to 20 years for first-degree murder in 2005, he was deported last year.

Now he faces 20 years in federal prison when convicted of illegally re-entering the country after deportation.
