Border Agents Nab 18 Sex Offenders in March. San Diego Sector 2021 Apprehensions Surpass Last Year's

It appears that Latin Americans with the China Virus aren't the only "migrants" who want to take up President Biden on his offer of asylum and amnesty.

Border agents are regularly arresting rapists, child molesters, and other sex fiends and perverts who hope to get into the county while the getting is good.

Border agents bagged at least 18 in March along the 1,954-mile border with Mexico, Customs and Border Protection reported. The San Diego sector is having a record year and has caught as many in the first five months of fiscal 2021 as it did all last year.

As of March 31, the last sex pervert border agents caught is a 36-year-old Mexican with "convictions for sexual assault, corporal injury of a spouse or cohabitant and disorderly conduct."

Apprehended with 11 other illegals in the Yuma, Arizona, sector on March 28, CBP reported, he is a seven-time deportee.

The same day, agents at the station in Calexico, California, nabbed a 32-year-old Mexican. He "was previously convicted on July 1, 2009, for annoying or molesting a victim under 18, out of Los Angeles, California." He landed three years probation and was deported.

On March 25, agents at the station in Uvalde, Texas, caught a Mexican who molested two kids in 2014 and landed a 10-year prison sentence. He was deported in 2017.

Hours later, agents at the Carrizo Springs Station caught a large group of illegals, two of whom were sex fiends. One sexually assaulted a child in 2015 and was deported the same year. The second was convicted of aggravated criminal sexual abuse in 2009 and deported the same year.

At the El Centro Station on March 24, agents caught two more convicted sex offenders, CBP reported.

One is a 39-year-old Mexican child molester and dope dealer who was convicted in 2010 for "great bodily injury, sex with a minor and lewd acts with a child."

The other is a 55-year-old Salvadoran convicted in California 19 years ago for "sexual intercourse with a minor." He too was a dope dealer.

On March 20, agents in San Diego caught 19 illegals packed into a pleasure boat, one of whom is a Mexican rapist who was convicted in Oregon in 2006; served six years, three months in prison; and then deported.

The day before, agents at the Mission, Texas, station caught two child-molesting Honduran illegals. One was convicted of raping a child in 2007; the other was convicted of sexually assaulting a child.

Agents in the El Centro Sector nailed a 28-year-old illegal Mexican sex fiend on March 18. He was convicted of sex with a minor in 2012.

On March 17, agents in Rio Grande City, Texas, apprehended a Honduran child molester in a group of nine illegals, CBP reported.

Two days before, they caught a Mexican rapist and Guatemalan child molester.

On March 11, agents in the El Centro Sector caught a 40-year-old Mexican child molester near the Calexico port of entry. He had a conviction for “lewd acts upon a child 14 years old or younger.”

Agents in Brownsville caught a Mexican sex offender on March 4. He has a conviction for felony second-degree sex assault.

On March 3, Rio Grande Sector agents bagged yet another Guatemalan, this one with a conviction for sexually assaulting a minor. He traveled with a group of 12 illegals.

Record Year?

The same day, agents in the San Diego sector caught yet another a Mexican child molester.

CPB appended a frightening item at the end its news release:

In fiscal year 2020, SDC’s Border Patrol agents arrested 25 sex offenders. During fiscal year 2021, 25 sex offenders were arrested in San Diego Sector during the first five months. With a growing number of arrests in recent years, SDC began tracking the annual apprehension of sex offenders in 2019.

Since October, as The New American reported last week, 130,000 illegals have slipped by border agents. That’s a rate of about 613 per day from October 1 through March.

How many were rapists and child molesters authorities will likely never know.
