Report: 3,000 Illegals Packed in Detention Camp Meant for 250, Biden Has Kids in Cages

Thousands of illegal aliens are packed like sardines into a detention camp where they sleep on floors, wrapped in what appear to be aluminum thermal blankets, Project Veritas revealed on Monday.

The report on the Biden Regime's facility in Donna, Texas, contains images of illegals confined in cubicles that resemble greenhouses for growing food on a forbidden planet in a sci-fi film.

Many of the illegals have the China Virus, PV reported, and many are minors.

The problem? For years, Biden, the leftist media, and the open-borders lobby accused President Trump of keeping "kids in cages."

Biden has kids in cages, and they can't get a regular shower.

Photos Show Terrible Conditions

The 185,000-square foot detention center opened just more than a month ago, PV reported.

"There are eight pods with eight cells each in the facility," the source said. "At any given moment there are an average of 3,000 people in custody here."

Dispersing the illegals evenly would put 375 into each pod, and about 46 into each cell. Huddled under the shiny blankets, the illegals on the floor resemble potatoes wrapped in foil, ready for the oven. PV did not report the size of the pods or cells.

A source with access to the facility, or who knows someone there, gave PV photos "taken within the last few days."

Biden is also exposing the illegals to sex assault, the source told PV:

[Illegals] are separated by age or physical size depending on room. Fifty were COVID positive in these cells over the last few days. There have been multiple sexual assaults, normal assaults and daily medical emergencies.”

A few weeks ago, as PV observed, CBS News exposed the deplorable conditions. Though Customs and Border Protection denied lawyers entry to the facility, one lawyer, Neha Desai, did interview some of the kids. “Some of the boys said that conditions were so overcrowded that they had to take turns sleeping on the floor,” Desai told CBS:

Most of the minors said they had only showered once while in U.S. custody, even though they’d been held for more than five days, according to Desai. Some said they had showered twice.

“They all said they wanted to shower more and were told they couldn’t,” Desai said.

CBS cited an internal CBP document that said the camp was 729-percent over capacity. Designed for 250 illegals, more than 1,800 were there at the time. If PV’s number is right, the conditions must be appalling. With 3,000 there, the camp is 1,200-percent over capacity.

Now, apparently, officials are permitting the media to see the camp.

“It appears once authorities learned we had these photos, they finally gave press access inside to scoop us,” PV reported. “We’re happy that our actions broke the rumored gag order.”

Last week, The New American reported that Biden had gagged border officials and blocked access to the detention camps.

“No Crisis“

As PV observed, the Biden Regime has repeatedly said the surge of illegals at the border is nothing to worry about.

A look at the facts suggests otherwise. Border agents apprehended more than 100,000 illegals in February, a figure that brought the total for fiscal 2021 to nearly 400,000. That’s 86 percent of the total for all of fiscal 2020.

But numbers don’t tell the whole story.

Aside from keeping kids in cages, Biden has been releasing illegals with the China Virus and permitting them to board buses and disappear into the country. He also plans to begin flying them across the country, as TNA reported yesterday, and dump them in northern border states.

Biden has already spent more than $100 million to bring in illegals and keep them here.
