Report: 60K Illegals Massing at Border. Hope to Invade Before Biden Reinstates “Remain in Mexico”

As U.S. Customs and Border Protection prepares to release its final figures for the number of apprehensions at the U.S. border for fiscal 2021, the Biden Regime prepares to reimplement President Trump’s Remain in Mexico Policy, pursuant to a federal court order.

Meanwhile, at the border, Fox News has reported, 60,000 illegals prepare for a mass invasion that Biden likely won’t stop. And he probably couldn’t, short of using military force.

But what’s 60,000 more? Border Agents have already apprehended more than 1.5 million illegals, September’s numbers not included.

Fact is Biden is watching — aiding and abetting — an invasion.

Get in While the Getting’s Good

The illegals “intend to enter the U.S. in the coming days, knowing that the Biden administration intends to re-implement the Trump-era policy next month in response to a court order from a federal judge that was upheld by the Supreme Court,” Fox reported. They’re already crossing into La Joya, Texas.

Most are Central Americans — from Honduras, Nicaragua, Guatemala, and El Salvador — and “included many unaccompanied minors and single mothers. One woman told Fox that the economy in her country was terrible and as a single mother she cannot afford to send her child to school.”

They had no reason not to keep coming. On Inauguration Day, Biden reversed President Trump’s “Remain in Mexico” policy. That policy required illegals to wait in Mexico while their asylum cases were processed. About 90 percent of asylum claims are bogus, as The New American reported when Trump announced what are formally known as the Migrant Protection Protocols in 2019.

And those bogus claims are one reason Trump created the MPP. Leaving a country to get a better job and free public education in the United States is not a valid asylum plea. And most “migrants” do indeed jump the border for a job.

Remain in Mexico just about ended catch-and-release, the practice of apprehending illegals only to let them go so they can disappear, never to be seen again. At a roundtable this week, Fox reported, former CBP chief Mark Morgan said the policy reduced illegal “families” from entering the country by about 80 percent.

But the federal court order, again, means the Biden Regime must reimplement the policy. A regime court filing said the process should be complete by mid-November.

Thus, the 60,000-strong illegal-alien “caravan” has appeared at the border. The “migrants” want to get in while they can. They know Biden and Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas not only will let them in but also fly them into the heartland.

And it won’t matter how many are sick with the China Virus and other possibly deadly, communicable diseases. Biden wants new Democrat voters and is determined to get them.

Slow-walked MPP Reinstatement

Missouri’s attorney general says Biden is dragging his feet in reinstating Remain in Mexico.

“Missouri, who along with Texas, sued DHS over the ending of MPP, accused the administration of having ‘slow-walked’ compliance with the order,” Fox reported last week:

“In April, we sued the Biden Administration over their cancellation of the ‘Remain in Mexico’ policy and won at the district court, 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, and at the United States Supreme Court, requiring the Biden Administration to reimplement the policy,” Missouri Attorney General Eric Schmitt said in a statement. “Despite multiple courts ordering the Biden Administration to reimplement the policy, they have repeatedly slow-walked that reimplementation.”

That won’t make much difference to Biden. CBP has already apprehended more than 1.54 million illegals this year.

Though CBP hasn’t released September’s figure, sources told Fox the total for the fiscal year, which ended September 30, surpassed 1.7 million. If true, that means border agents apprehended another 200,000, as they did in August and July.
