Stephen Broden Reflects on the March for Jobs Rally (Video)

Stephen Broden, guest correspondent for The New American, reflects on the Comprehensive Immigration Reform bill that is currently in the House of Representatives. He argues that the reform bill proposed by the “Gang of Eight” will actually hurt Americans, especially the black community, if enacted. Broden accuses the eight senators of pushing aside the interests of the American people, whom they are supposed to serve, in favor of the interests of illegal immigrants.
