

Pastor & Sheriff Join Forces Against Tyranny

When tyranny descended on America and government ordered churches shut down as “non-essential,” Pastor Caleb Cooper of New Hope Revival Church in New Mexico knew he could not comply, so he called his local sheriff. Together, he told The New American magazine’s Alex Newman, they figured out how to respond, providing a great example for pastors and lawmen across the nation. Both men spoke at the Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association in Las Vegas. Most importantly, perhaps, Pastor Cooper explains the biblical rationale for refusing to submit to fear or lawless tyranny.
