Why The Swamp is Freaking Out Over Trump Firing FBI Boss Comey

The establishment swamp of Washington, D.C., has been freaking out over President Trump's decision to fire FBI chief James Comey. But as The New American's correspondent Alex Newman explains in this video, they are basing their phony outrage on debunked conspiracy theories that have no evidence behind them. The real reason for the swamp's outrage, then, may have something to do with the concerns of swamp creatures that their fellow establishment globalist will no longer be able to protect them.
