Controversial Attorney Lin Wood, in His Own Words

Lin Wood, the controversial counselor from Macon, Georgia, has pulled the Trump Train into Yemassee, South Carolina. At the junction of Hampton and Beaufort County, the old railroad town is now home to one of the most audacious attorneys in the world.

Zoe Warren of The Standard SC had an opportunity to visit Lin at his home, Tomotley, one of three properties spanning approximately 1,800 acres that he has recently purchased. He interviewed Wood to provide South Carolinians who have not had a face-to-face with him a chance to hear his answers to several accusations that leveled against him since he entered the race for South Carolina GOP Chairman. This is Lin Wood, the man, addressing the truth in his words — the good, the bad, and the ugly.
