Gabbard: Perverted Talk in NSA Chatroom Violated Trust in Intel Community. More Than 100 Fired

Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard has fired more than 100 intelligence officials involved in perverted sex talk using a National Security Agency chat room.

Gabbard told Fox talker Jesse Watters that the chats are “some of the biggest violations of the American people’s trust in the intelligence community.” She fired the freaks and weirdos last night after two reports from the City Journal’s Christopher Rufo. He revealed that the officials spent hours at work chatting about demented sexual fetishes. One included the desire for babies to be born with a birth defect that makes the “intersex,” or hermaphroditic.

The officials worked for the Defense Intelligence, Central Intelligence, and National Security agencies, as well as Navy intelligence and the U.S. Space Force.

Last night, the heads of the U.S. intelligence combine received a memorandum that they must identify the culprits in the sex chats by Friday.

Great news, but the chat messages contained more than "sexual themes." They weren't discussing symbolism in Madame Bovary. They were talking about cutting off their genitals, enjoying piss fetishes, and organizing gangbangs on official intel agency servers!

The Chats

Rufo's first revelation, which also appeared in City Journal, exposed a sordid underground of sex perverts who openly discussed deranged and dangerous fantasies, notably those involving sex after “sex-change” surgeries.

A mentally disturbed disturbed employee who underwent a penectomy and a newly built “vagina” wrote that he likes “being penetrated (never liked it before GRS [gender reassignment surgery]), but all the rest is just as important as well.”

These employees discussed hair removal, estrogen injections, and the experience of sexual pleasure post-castration. “[G]etting my b*tt*le zapped by a laser was . . . shocking,” said one transgender-identifying intel employee who spent thousands on hair removal. “Look, I just enjoy helping other people experience boobs,” said another about estrogen treatments. “[O]ne of the weirdest things that gives me euphoria is when i p, i don’t have to push anything down to make sure it aims right,” a Defense Intelligence Agency employee added.

EXCLUSIVE: @GrossmanHannah and I have obtained logs from the NSA’s secret transgender sex chatroom, in which NSA, CIA, and DIA employees discuss genital castration, artificial vaginas, piss fetishes, sex polycules, and gangbangs—all on government time.

This is insane. ☐

One popular chat topic was male-to-female transgender surgery, which involves surgically removing the penis and turning it into an artificial vagina. These male intelligence agents love the feeling of penetration and of peeing with their pseudo-vaginas.

“Medical science is gonna give me t*ts one way or another,” Navy intelligence employee wrote.

Rufo followed with an X thread that exposed the employees’ hatred of Gabbard, Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth, and Health and Human Service Secretary Robert F. Kennedy, Jr.

Gabbard, they wrote, is “fervently anti-queer,” a “Russian agent,” and a member of the “MAGA cult.”

The group also fumed about the Libs of Tiktok X feed and Daily Wire founder Ben Shapiro.

Worse, however, was what came from one member of the group. “An intersex at birth would be a great opportunity to raise a kid [non-binary] and let them choose later,” an NSA participant wrote.

So American intelligence officials openly wrote about abusing a child, and others went along with it.

Gabbard Fires Them

Last night, hours after Rufo's second installment, Gabbard announced on X that she sent a memorandum. "We know who they are," she wrote.

DNI spokesman Alexa Henning wrote on X that Gabbard will ensure that the intelligence community

“refocuses their mission to protecting the safety, security, and freedom of the American people and rid the IC of the DEI nonsense the Biden admin pushed for four years.”

As well, Henning explained that Gabbard’s memorandum set a Friday deadline for the heads of the intelligence agencies to identify the sex perverts using the chat rooms:

The DNI sent a memo directing all intelligence agencies to identify the employees who participated in the NSA’s “obscene, pornographic, and sexually explicit” chat rooms and to terminate their employment and revoke their security clearances.

Deadline: Friday.

Speaking to Fox talker Jesse Watters, Gabbard explained what she had done after Rufo’s revelations. The chats are “really just an egregious violation of trust,” said Gabbard. She noted that the employees will be fired and their security clearance will be revoked.

Continued Gabbard:

This is just barely scratching the surface.

When you see what these people were saying — and thanks to Chris Rufo for putting it all out online — they were brazen in using an NSA platform, intended for professional use, to conduct this kind of really, really horrific behavior.

And they were brazen in doing this, because when was the last time anyone was really held accountable? Certainly not over the last four years, certainly not over the last 10, maybe 20 years.

NYT Lies By Omission

As one would expect, the far-left mainstream media downplayed and omitted report details about the chats.

The New York Times called the perverted chats “discussions that contained sexual themes,” and said they contained “explicit discussion of gender transition surgery.”

Axios reported that the chats were “sexually explicit.”

Maybe the two far-left publications worried that the material wasn’t fit for anyone to see.

Replied Rufo:

Strangely, an X post from NSA falsely suggested that Rufo might be wrong.

“NSA is aware of posts that appear to show inappropriate discussions by IC personnel. IC collaboration platforms are intended to drive mission outcomes,” the post said:

Potential misuse of these platforms by a small group of individuals does not represent the community. Investigations to address this misuse of government systems are ongoing.

Gabbard might add whoever composed that X post to the roster of employees to be fired.
