

Globalist Sock-puppet Biden and His “New World Order,” “Build Back Better,” and “Great Reset” Themes

Where does Joe Biden get his catchy globalist catchphrases such as “New World Order,” “Build Back Better,” and “Great Reset”?

Here’s a clue: They don’t spring full-blown from the feeble cerebral cortex of “President” Joe Biden. As many of our writers here at The New American have been pointing out for decades, the catchphrase “New World Order” (NWO) is a globalist shibboleth signifying an envisioned one-world government under the United Nations and its ancillary agencies. And as this writer pointed out in his 1992 book, Global Tyranny...Step by Step: The United Nations and the Emerging New World Order, the expression “new world order” has a long history emanating from the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) and its British sister institution, the Royal Institute of International Affairs (RIIA, also known as Chatham House). As just one example out of many, I cited an article from the Spring 1991 Foreign Affairs, the official house organ of the CFR, titled “The U.N. in a New World Order.” Authored by Professors Bruce Russett and James S. Sutterlin, the CFR-promoted article especially endorsed proposals to provide the United Nations with vast new military assets and “peacekeeping” forces. This has been the stock-in-trade of globalists since World War II and the founding of the United Nations.

Joe Biden jumped on the New World Order bandwagon quite a while ago. As we reported years ago, on April 23, 1992, the Wall Street Journal published an op-ed from then-Senator Biden titled “How I Learned to Love the New World Order.” In that piece, Biden extolled “collective security” through the United Nations and called for a “permanent commitment of forces for use by the Security Council.” “Why not breathe life into the U.N. Charter?” Biden asked, not mentioning that the same life-breathing action for the UN Charter would mean toxic death for the U.S. Constitution, which he has taken an oath (repeatedly) to uphold and defend. Not to mention that it would also be the death knell for American sovereignty, independence — and freedom.

Biden has returned to the New World Order theme many times since, as the videos below show. There was, for instance, his April 5, 2013 speech at the Export-Import Bank conference in Washington, D.C., in which he averred that “the affirmative task we have now is to, um, create a new world order, because the global order is changing again.”

Then there was his May 28, 2014 commencement address to the U.S. Air Force Academy Class of 2014, in which he told the cadets, “I believe we, in particular you, your class, has an incredible window of opportunity to lead in shaping a new world order for the 21st century.” (Skip to the three-minute mark to get to his NWO exhortation.)

It was more of the same in his speech to the billionaire club known as World Economic Forum in Davos 2017 and his special program at the Council on Foreign Relations with CFR President Richard Haass. At that CFR event, Biden and Haass discussed the article Biden had co-authored with Michael Carpenter for the January-February 2018 issue of the CFR propaganda journal Foreign Affairs. During the introductions, Biden jokes that he works for Haass. However, for those who understand the relationship, it is no joke.

Biden doesn't only talk about the New World Order. His entire political career has been built on promoting the CFR's NWO program, including supporting virtually every measure that increases the size and power of the United Nations. And, since moving into the White House, he has begun appointing CFR globalists to the top slots in his administration. In our recent report, “Biden's Cabinet Appointments: Refilling the Swamp With Deep State Globalists From the CFR.” we note that in his first few days in office he had appointed nearly two dozen CFR members to Cabinet positions and top-level posts.

Bipartisan treachery

Of course, Biden's NWO promo in the Wall Street Journal came long after President George H.W. Bush had made a major splash with several high-profile televised speeches pushing the United Nations and the New World Order. In his speech to the nation and the world on September 11, 1990, “Republican” President Bush, a longtime CFR insider, stated, “Out of these troubled times, our fifth objective — a new world order — can emerge.” He proceeded to announce his hopes for “a United Nations that performs as envisioned by its founders.”

Those “visionary” UN founders praised by Bush included Soviet mass-murderer Joseph Stalin's representative Vyacheslav Molotov and Stalin's communist agents in our own government, the American traitors Alger Hiss, Solomon Adler, Virginius Frank Coe, Lawrence Duggan, Noel Field, Harold Glasser, Victor Perlo, Nathan G. Silvermaster, Harry Dexter White, and others.

“Build Back Better,” “Great Reset”

Last year, presidential candidate Joe Biden came out with his new campaign slogan: Build Back Better. The trouble is, aside from the snappy (or sappy) alliteration, the BBB slogan is not Biden's, but yet another case of his infamous tendency toward plagiarism — except, in this case, the original authors of the slogan have no problem with being plagiarized. In fact, they have encouraged politicians worldwide to use the phrase as a mantra, as part of their push for The Great Reset as a catchphrase that came out of the United Nations and the World Economic Forum.

And sellout politicians from Biden to U.K. Prime Minister Boris Johnson (and many others) have climbed aboard the BBB bandwagon.

And speaking of the World Economic Forum's megalomaniacal scheme to "reset" the economic, social, political, moral, and spiritual agenda of the entire planet, Joe Biden's newly-appointed "Climate Envoy," the former U.S. Senator and Secretary of State John Kerry (CFR), told the WEF at its recent summit that "The notion of a reset is more important now than ever before." "I personally believe," Kerry said, "we're at the dawn of an extremely exciting time."

The good news in all of this is that tens of millions of people have awakened to the fact that beneath the honeyed words of the totalitarian-minded globalists represented by Joe Biden is a malevolent plan to enslave all of humanity. And a great many of those newly awakened will no longer be silenced and cowed with the standard media smear of being a "conspiracy theorist."
