Illinois Bill Would Ban State Employees From Traveling to Pro-Life States

Heather Hobbs, pro-life speaker with Save the 1 discusses Illinois proposed legislation that would bar state employees, officers, board members, or agents from traveling using state funds to other states that have passed pro-life legislation. The bill's sponsor, Daniel Didech (D-Ill.), who represents Illinois' 59th district, located in the Chicago metropolitan area, describes pro-life laws as being "very dangerous."
