Liberal Rhetoric Rains Bullets on Republicans

From FreedomProject Media:

The irrational hatred of President Trump, Republicans, Christians, and conservatives being orchestrated and fueled by the establishment media and the government “education” system culminated on June 14, 2017, in a mass shooting targeting GOP members of Congress. Only the quick response by the Capitol Hill Police prevented a bloodbath at the congressional baseball practice.

According to Congressman Mark Walker (R-N.C.), who was at the site in Virginia but was not physically injured, it appeared that the gunman “was there to kill as many Republican members as possible.” Congressman Ron DeSantis (R-Fla.), meanwhile, explained that a man, presented as the shooter in multiple reports, had asked whether it was Republicans or Democrats playing baseball.

A number of victims were wounded, including House Majority Whip Rep. Steve Scalise (R-La.), two Capitol Hill police officers, and an aide. Scalise was transported to the hospital with serious injuries, but he is expected to make a full recovery.

The suspect, James T. Hodgkinson, who was reportedly killed in a battle with police, has been identified as a Trump-hating supporter of Socialist Bernie Sanders, a fringe left-wing politician and anti-Christian fanatic often ridiculed as Bolshevik Bernie by critics.
