Thousands Line the Streets in Florida on Presidents' Day in Patriotic Show of Support for Trump

On this Presidents' Day, February 15, 2021, in the wake of a historically unprecedented and unconstitutional second impeachment trial of former President Donald J. Trump, an equally historic showing of support for the 45th commander-in-chief took place in West Palm Beach, Florida.

Thousands of patriots from across the Sunshine State and the entire country, from all backgrounds and ethnicities, gathered "peacefully and patriotically" to celebrate the accomplishments of the most popular president in U.S. history.

On the corner of a single intersection, about a mile from Trump's Mar-a-Lago resort, more than 800 Trump and American flags could be seen waving in the warm breeze, as hundreds of people congregated with a spirit of hope and excitement; emotions all too rare in today's polarized climate. One supporter named Kirk, from Orlando, came to "uplift the president after the 'sham impeachment trial'" that ended on Saturday with the acquittal of Trump, now a private citizen, in a vote of 57-43 in the Senate.

The atmosphere in Florida was electric, as Right Side Broadcasting Network (RSBN), allegedly the only national media network covering the event, reported live today on what may be the single celebration nationwide honoring any president. Notably, Joe Biden is not in the spotlight. Many supporters of former president Trump would attribute Biden's absence in celebrations to the dismal performance of his first days in office, specifically his "killing of thousands of jobs." In contrast, Trump put America first and "always worked for the people, never enriching himself," as one Floridian told reporters.

Today's diverse crowd is a strong testament to the truth that Trump brought people together from all walks of life and all racial backgrounds for the common purpose of putting American values and liberty first. The myth that he is a divider rather than a unifier was repeatedly debunked by the MAGA-hat-clad fans who presented an overwhelming outpouring of support for their favorite president.

At 2:21 p.m. EST, scores of patriotic Americans — including Hispanic, black, and Asian Americans — were absolutely elated by the "surprise" drive-by of Trump's motorcade, which slowly made its way down the street passing throngs of crowds teeming with an energy of pure joy and appreciation. Trump could be seen waving from inside his SUV to fans erupting in cheers and tears, many declaring, "We know you won, Mr. President!"
