Augmenting “Bloodbath” Hoax, Google Changes Definition

Even for the hate-Trump leftist media, the latest lie about Donald Trump is hard to believe, and Google, an ex-officio wing of the Biden presidential campaign, is doing its part to spread that lie.

After Donald Trump predicted an economic bloodbath for the nation’s auto industry if Joe Biden is reelected president, Biden’s Mainstream Media Information Ministry sprung into action. Headlines clearly implied that Trump was advocating violence or predicting civil war.

Not to be left out of the fun, Google changed its definition of bloodbath to exclude the version that included the context in which Trump used it.

The latest from leftist Google comes on the heels of two embarrassing reports. One explained that its failed AI, Gemini, is returning deranged results because the company’s leftists designed it to do so. Another showed that Google has interfered in every election going back to 2008 on behalf of Democratic candidates, notably Presidents Biden and Barack Hussein Obama, and failed candidate Hillary Clinton.

Trump’s Remarks

Most remarkable about the media’s lie is that it’s so easily disproven, as was Joe Biden’s lie in 2020 that Trump called the Covid-19 virus a “hoax,” a lie that invited a fact check from The Washington Post.

In this case, speaking at a rally in Vandalia, Ohio, Trump warned that Biden would destroy the American auto industry:

China now is building a couple of massive plants where they’re going to build the cars in Mexico and think, they think, that they’re going to sell those cars into the United States with no tax at the border. Let me tell you something to China, if you’re listening President Xi, and you and I are friends, but he understands the way I deal. Those big monster car manufacturing plants that you’re building in Mexico right now, and you think you’re going to get that, you’re going to not hire Americans, and you’re going to sell the cars to us? No. We’re going to put a 100% tariff on every single car that comes across the line, and you’re not going to be able to sell those cars. If I get elected. Now, if I don’t get elected, it’s going to be a bloodbath, for the whole — that’s going to be the least of it. It’s going to be a bloodbath for the country. That’ll be the least of it. But they’re not going to sell those cars.

On cue, the left media pushed in all its chips.

Politico offered a similarly misleading headline, “Trump says country faces ‘bloodbath’ if Biden wins in November,” but added this mendacious line below it: “While it was unclear what the former president meant exactly, the remarks came as Trump was complaining about the automobile industry.”

And of course, the media’s man Biden — he of the Trump-said-Covid-19-is-a-“hoax” hoax — told a baldfaced lie on X. “It’s clear this guy wants another January 6,” either Biden or his puppet masters wrote. “But the American people are going to give him another resounding electoral defeat this November.”

Fox & Friends co-host Will Cain assembled myriad Google results:

A search for “trump bloodbath” on YouTube returned dozens of misleading video teasers.

So egregious was the lie that even FactCheck.org defended Trump and included his comments posted to Truth Social:

The Fake News Media, and their Democrat Partners in the destruction of our Nation, pretended to be shocked at my use of the word BLOODBATH, even though they fully understood that I was simply referring to imports allowed by Crooked Joe Biden, which are killing the automobile industry. The United Auto Workers, but not their leadership, fully understand what I mean. With the Electric Car Mandate being pushed by Biden, there soon won’t be any cars made in the USA - UNLESS I’M ELECTED PRESIDENT, IN WHICH CASE AUTO MANUFACTURING WILL THRIVE LIKE NEVER BEFORE!!! Google Lie

The End Wokeness X feed publicized Google's stealth edit.

On March 17, the definition read this way:

A ruthless slaughter of a great number of people: massacre. Informal. a period of disastrous loss or reversal: A few mutual funds performed well in the general bloodbath of the stock market.

On March 19, Google dropped the second definition:

an event or situation in which many people are killed in a violent manner. "he allowed the protest to go ahead despite warnings that it would spark a bloodbath"

The Merriam-Webster website offers these definitions: "a great slaughter," or "a notably fierce, violent, or destructive contest or struggle," or "a major economic disaster."

The screenshot shows the Merriam-Webster website interface. At the top, there is a search bar with 'bloodbath' entered and a search icon. To the left of the search bar are buttons for 'Dictionary' and 'Thesaurus'. To the right is a link for 'Games & Quizzes'. Below the search bar is a banner image of a woman and a child with the text 'I CAN CARE FOR MY FAMILY'. On the left side, there is a navigation menu with 'Dictionary' highlighted, and sub-options for 'Definition', 'Synonyms', 'Example Sentences', 'Word History', 'Related Articles', 'Entries Near', and 'Show More'. A 'Save Word' button is at the bottom of the menu. The main content area displays the word 'bloodbath' as a noun, with its phonetic transcription 'ˈbləd-,ˌbæθ' and a link to 'Synonyms of bloodbath'. Three definitions are listed: 1. a great slaughter; 2a. a notably fierce, violent, or destructive contest or struggle (example: the campaign has become a bloodbath); 2b. a major economic disaster (example: a market bloodbath).

The Oxford English Dictionary says the word has “has developed meanings and uses in subjects including pharmacology (1830s), sport (1950s), and finance (1960s).”

Not that Google or its leftist controllers care, but the latest won’t soften its reputation as an outfit controlled by cultural Marxists and, most likely, out-and-out communists.

Former employees told the Free Press website that Google’s Gemini purposely returned woke and highly embarrassing images of women popes, Asian knights in England, and black WWII German soldiers. Gemini “is just a reflection of the people who trained it,” a former Googler said.

The Media Research Center assembled the report on Google’s election interference. Data scientist Robert Epstein said that Google’s search results flipped 2.6 million votes to Hillary Clinton in 2016 and 6 million to Biden in 2020.
