The Plot Thickens: Comer Claims Form Held by FBI Describes $5 Million Bribe by “Adversarial” Country to Vice President Biden

In the latest wrinkle involving the notorious FD-1023 form that allegedly has damning information about the Biden crime syndicate, and which FBI Director Christopher Wray has refused to turn over to Congress, the FBI has now deigned to permit House Oversight Committee Chairman James Comer and ranking member Jamie Raskin to view the document in a secure facility. However, Wray still refuses outright to comply with the subpoena, which requires that the document be turned over to House investigators. As a result, Comer and House GOP congressmen are still considering holding Wray in contempt of Congress, with unspecified penalties to follow.

Comer revealed in an interview with Newsmax last Thursday that the document contains credible claims that Biden, while vice president, accepted a $5 million bribe from an “adversarial” country that is not China, Romania, or Ukraine, for which corrupt ties to the Biden family have already been uncovered. While declining to name the country, Comer commented wryly that “the most reputable country that I have found that the Biden family was taking money from is China, if that tells you anything.”

Comer also noted that, while the amount of this particular bribe is alleged to be around $5 million, “I think you’re going to see that the Biden family took in somewhere — we’ve already proven $10 million — I think this is going to end up being somewhere between $15 and $30 million.” Even in today’s inflationary economy this is not chump change, and it goes a long way to explaining how Joe Biden and his wife — a career politician and a teacher — have somehow amassed assets worth tens of millions of dollars.

It’s not hard to see why the DOJ, the FBI, Democrats in Congress, and the Biden administration are all trying so hard to keep this information under wraps. Comer characterized it as “corruption on a scale we’ve never seen in the history of our country.” This is no exaggeration: the Biden family’s corrupt carryings-on are our Founding Fathers’ worst nightmare: the selling out of our country to powerful enemy nations by the highest officeholders in the land.

And no doubt the full scope of the Bidens’ breathtakingly audacious and treasonous activities have yet to be fully uncovered.
